This material is for informational purposes only and is neither an offer of coverage nor medical advice. It contains only a partial, general description of plan benefits or programs and does not constitute a contract. Aetna does not provide health care services and therefore, cannot guarantee any results or outcomes. Consult the plan document (i.e. Schedule of Benefits, Certificate of Coverage, Evidence of Coverage, Group Agreement, Group Insurance Certificate and/or Group Policy) to determine governing contractual provisions, including procedures, exclusions and limitations relating to the plan. The availability of a plan or program may vary by geographic service area. Some benefits are subject to limitations or visit maximums. With the exception of Aetna Rx Home Delivery, all participating physicians, hospitals and other health care providers are independent contractors and are neither agents nor employees of Aetna. The availability of any particular provider cannot be guaranteed, and provider network composition is subject to change. Notice of the change shall be provided in accordance with applicable state law.

Certain services require precertification, or prior approval of coverage. Failure to precertify for these services may lead to substantially reduced benefits or denial of coverage.

Some of the benefits requiring precertification may include, but are not limited to, inpatient hospital, inpatient mental health, inpatient skilled nursing, outpatient surgery, substance abuse (detoxification), inpatient and outpatient rehabilitation). When the Member obtains covered services from participating providers, the provider will obtain precertification. If the Member obtains covered services from a nonparticipating provider, the Member must obtain the precertification. Precertification requirements may vary. Members may refer to their plan documents for a complete list of medical services that require precertification. Certain benefits like comprehensive infertility and advanced reproductive technology (ART) services, if covered under your plan, are subject to a select network of participating providers, from which you will be required to seek care to receive covered benefits.

Members or providers may be required to precertify, or obtain prior approval of coverage for certain services such as non-emergency inpatient hospital care. Certain benefits like comprehensive infertility and advanced reproduction technology (ART) services, if covered under your plan, are subject to a select network of participating providers, from which you will be required to seek care to receive covered benefits.

"Aetna" is the brand name used for products and services provided by one or more of the Aetna group of subsidiary companies. The Aetna companies that offer, underwrite or administer benefits include Aetna Health Inc.. Employer-funded plans are administered by Aetna Life Insurance Company or Aetna Health Administrators, LLC.
